

Reading Week Observation 2016-17

NAM College Library, Sahityavedi and NSS unit 31&32 jointly conducted the reading day week observation in the college. The programme scheduled in 4 days with variety of activities. On 20th June, our programme was inaugurated by Sri. Raju Kattupunam, famous writer and narrator. He took the students in the magical world of reading through the stories, experiences and by familiarizing various characters in the novels and stories. Principal Dr. K.K. Musthafa presided over the function. Kumari Shabana (volunteer secretary) delivered the welcome speech and Mr. Anseer.K expressed the vote of thanks. The volunteers displayed posters on the importance of reading in various part of the campus. In the other day we conducted various programmes like Reading competition in Malayalam and English, Dictation in Malayalam etc. The volunteers collected books from students to the central library

